#Bosch-Capdeferro

Ramon Bosch and Bet Capdeferro, trained at ETSAB-UPC, have led the bosch.capdeferro arquitectura studio in Girona since 2003. They combine their professional practice with teaching at national and international universities, including ETSAB, ETH Zürich, the University of Girona, Cornell University, and Washington University in Saint Louis. Their work has received various recognitions, including the FAD Award (2015) and the Emerging Mies Award (2011), and they have participated in three editions of the Venice Biennale (2012, 2016, and 2025).

#BAI Launch

This will be the first BAI ON SITE meeting, an initiative that will introduce the Building and Architecture Institute (BAI) and offer the opportunity to learn about the work of Bosch-Capdeferro, focusing on the affordable rental housing project and the community gym at Ronda Sant Pau.
